What I know about you

I know you're linked to implants in my body, snuck in by an ex-boyfriend, and by my dentist. I know you came to America as part of your human trafficking activities.

I know you're linked to keeping me falsely imprisoned, I know you're linked to slandering me, I know you're linked to sex trafficking me, I know you're linked to organized crime, and I know you're trying to murder me.

What I don't know is why my country is permitting you to do these things.
