

Dear old colleagues,

I am turning to you in an urgent humanitarian appeal that requires your expertise. I am fighting to protect my life and that of several thousand victims in Europe. I have appeared before the High Court in London this year (Court case [2016] EWHC 2095 (QB)), received several death threats and survived an assassination attempt. I have also been brutally assaulted, bruised up repeatedly and my computer sabotaged in spectacular hack attacks.

I have posted a public appeal to you, which you can find here: <https://youtu.be/wCI7mOic2As>

Some of you will know that in November 2011, I have been placed under surveillance by (the ironically named) British intelligence when I attended a public court case in the UK High Court as a member of the public. At the time, I was employed as a research fellow by St John's College, Oxford, but had left particle physics to research the physics of complex human systems.

Overt surveillance turned into non-stop harassment which, after a year in Oxford and a Stasi-style break-in into my home, followed me to Germany and then to Switzerland in autumn 2015. After the second Stasi-style break-in into our home over Christmas, I told Dean that I am going to report it to the police and shortly after I was brutally assaulted with microwave weapons. Microwave beams pass through the walls of a home and are hailed as the weapons of the 21st century. Since that day in January 2016, I have been physically assaulted non-stop in a programmatic way that demonstrated that it is some sort of human experimentation or weapons testing. When I tried to protect myself by using metal shielding, I received painful shots to sensitive body parts.

After some research, I came across the very recent testimony of the intelligence whistleblowers Dr Robert Duncan, Dr Paul Batcho, Carl Clark and many other scientists, lawyers, doctors and academics who are all desperately campaigning to save the life of victims like me. They are trying to have a sprawling secret service program shut down that seems to have run out of control with the sudden increase (and sometimes doubling) of the secret service budgets. It appears that rogue elements in the intelligence agencies got together with the weapons industry and are now testing these novel microwave weapons and other horrors on unsuspecting civilians. 70% of the victims are women (c.f. schizophrenia and paranoia sufferers are 60% men).

Unfortunately, I am one of them and I have by now ample evidence, including high-frequency measurements proving the assaults on me in my home. For the past 5 years, I have been non-stop hounded in a way that I can prove. For the past 11 months, however, my body has been brutally shot into by these degenerate psychopaths virtually non-stop. They ran systematic programs where over weeks, my thyroid, lungs, spine, eyes and other body parts were irradiated with painful pulsed pencil beams. These beams shoot through the walls of a home as 50% of microwaves pass through brick and concrete. The intelligence agencies combine this with high-resolution radar with which you can see people inside a multi-floor house (one such device is advertised on YouTube by Lawrence Livermore Lab).

Two days ago I was tortured and shot at non-stop at night. I measured the attacks which occurred exactly every 60s, so must have been computer steered. One of my kidneys was brutally damaged in one of the pulses at 4am. You can find the video of these assaults here:

With a detailed explanation of what you can see here:

Another brutal assault in the middle of the night which I recorded is here:

Some of the high profile whistleblowers, e.g. Dr Rauni Kilde who was the Chief Medical Officer of Finland, have been murdered with these novel "directed energy weapons" when they campaigned for the covert assault programs to be shut down. Dr Kilde was in her 70s by the time these sick degenerates tortured her to death.

This week, I have gone public on a UK radio show about the attacks on me. Here you can find my interview on the Richie Allen Show:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q7GkcHmiqfk&feature=youtu.be>

After that, the attacks, which have already been severe leading up to it, exploded such that during the day and especially at night, my skull is shot into with high-power microwave beams that are extremely painful and that I can measure. It seems that the intelligence agencies are now aiming for total neurological destruction so that I cannot go back to the High Court to plead for myself to protect my life.

As I said, there are plenty of highly qualified whistleblowers, who publicly state that this is exactly what the intelligence agencies are doing. I list some on my website (see 'Rock the boat' bottom right). Also Dr Robert Duncan (ex DARPA) has now publicly stated that he is going to support my case.

Please, dear colleagues, I am asking you to look at the evidence that I have already posted on my website (there is a lot more coming!) at:

Please follow me on Twitter @Stop007org to keep an eye on my well-being.

And please, if you feel that my life is worth saving, I appeal to you to write to the four men who can intercede in these crimes and request that the assaults on me be stopped:

Please, as an erstwhile Junior Research Fellow, I urge you to help me as I was once part of your community. Sadly, as my attempts to launch a business have been sabotaged as well as my current consultancy, I did not gain any new colleagues with whom I work closely and who could stand up for me. As sad as that sounds. This is also the precise reason why I have been placed on this program. Since the Snowden leaks we know that the intelligence agencies are analysing social data to identify those who are isolated and who can be experimented upon. This time, it seemed to have been me.

Please, I am pleading for your personal help as I am requiring the expertise of professionals.

Thank you very much for your time and help,

Katherine Horton
