Hi Katherine.

good news : the hearing may be finally be shifted to november (waiting confirmation tomorrow).

I have a new court-appointed lawyer.

She will ask for the hearing shift tomorrow to the judge.

The president of the court already said that she might agree to shift to November but to be confirmed tomorrow at hearing.

My other lawyer from paris told me that it would be perfect to call the press and to let the people know about the scandals around my court case.

And she will help me to write my legal conclusions (even though she told me to give to court tomorrow a copy of my own conclusions because it shows what I feel from my heart about the bad tricks done to me during this court case).

She things to complain against my previous lawyer and against the public ministry for the bad ways I have been treated all along since 1 year with that court case and since 20 years with my targeting.

I hope you will be able to recover and I will send you another convocation as an expert witness and you will have to tell me if you have a new address or not.

So this is good news (still to be confirmed).

Frederic.
