Millicent et al, Here is what I honestly believe and/or suspect, based on what I've seen and experienced:

1. All of Techno Crime Fighters was a COINTELPRO style disinformation & disruption intelligence operation involving several different players. Of this I am pretty confident, mainly due to the sophistication, patterns consistent with other disinfo, trajectory of the content, DOD links with Millicent, Paul, & Karen.
2. Everyone who contributed to Techno: Paul, Mindy, Katherine, Millicent, Karen, and Ramola, were involved not to inform so much as to control and ultimately, disinform.
3. Not a single person involved with Techno had a PhD. These credentials were lied about & falsified in order to lend false credibility to the performers. (Techno was a performance - or fraud - depending on how forgiving one wants to be.)
4. I SUSPECT that U.S. DOD was involved in, if not behind Techno. I SUSPECT that Karen Melton Stewart currently works for the NSA or a similar agency. I SUSPECT that the US Air Force (black ops) was involved in Techno since both Millicent & Karen have Air Force links.
5. I suspect that Katherine Horton is linked with an outside intelligence agency, very possibly Russian intelligence. If so, this would make the third time (that I know of!) that Russian intelligence agents have inserted themselves into my life in order to "guide" me in a certain direction - and the second time that a Russian intelligence agent used my middle name (Katrin) as a mirror technique to gain my confidence.

I have lots of questions still, like if Katherine is linked with Russian intel, did the other members or their backers know this? Did they find out later? It seems like it would have been kind of obvious if you were operating in these circles... but the whole situation is so bizarre to begin with, maybe people have not been as careful as they ought to be.

Nonetheless, those are my assertions: each and every one of you were running a "joint" disinformation op, and those who are still publishing, are still running ops, and Katherine in particular has shifted to targeting MAGA types which means she's going after the Donald Trump base, not sure why, but obviously has plans of some sort, is shifting into another phase of HER plan.

And, Millicent, I genuinely believe this. If you are able to provide compelling enough evidence to convince me otherwise, I won't hesitate to remove any incorrect videos and/or post a retraction, because I am VERY concerned about being truthful. But I do have to be convinced, because if you are somehow innocent of these ulterior motives, you'd be the only one in the group. So my point of view is it's very unlikely that you are being honest with me. AFA the various legal threats, understand I have no resources because of a lifetime of blacklisting & sabotage - plus, in the US, the truth is the ultimate defense to defamation. And this is all I'm looking for: truth.

TBH I don't know how on earth any of you would have money for an attorney (unless of course you are in fact all spies, which, of course you are). But whatever. I very much believe what I am saying, and I do have evidence in the forms of links & patterns. Millicent, if there is ANY chance that I'm wrong, and you were somehow innocently swept up in this op, you should be very concerned about how you may have harmed your reputation by being involved, even by accident. But I REALLY don't think it was an accident. I really think you were 100% complicit.

So there it is.
